

THE PENNANT

1933

- Marion Edwards -

● THERE'S a breathless hush in the gym tonight,
A score to make and a game to win--
The band plays on, the crowd yells
"fight"
A minute to play, and a man goes in,
And it's not for the sake of a lettered coat,
Or the selfish hope of a season's fame,
But his captain's hand on his shoulder smile.
"Play up! Play up! and play the game!"

With sincere appreciation of his many years of successful generalship in Elkhart High School athletics, and of his constant upholding of the ideals of true sportsmanship.

With hearty congratulations for his victories in the past, with complete confidence in the outcome of his contests in the future and with every assurance of our
● interest in all his undertakings.

To C. C. Boone, that friend of every Elkhart High School student: we, the class of 1933, dedicate this volume of the Pennant Annual.

● Play the game . . . In sports and games the important thing is not whether we win or lose but how we play.

● So it is in life . . . Our successes or failures are not so important as the attitude which we take toward our responsibilities.

● We are graduating at a time when this spirit counts more than ever before. When material things have lost their former value, courage and sportsmanship take on a higher significance.

It is this spirit of playing the game that we have tried to catch in our yearbook.

January Class History

In January, 1929, about seventy-five hopeful young men and women decided to start a business enterprise for the purpose of knowledge, the development of earning and as by-products, good times and extra activities.

When the "Brain Development Company" was organized, Austin Speas was chosen as the manager. Mary Lucille Overlease was his private secretary and Jimmie Oliver was assistant manager. David Le Fevre was the treasurer and Wilson Singer social chairman. In the latter part of our first year, the employers and employees were all invited to a party in the E. H. S. gym. Miss Engleman backed our company the first year it was organized.

At the beginning of our second year in the E. H. S. Building, we merged with the Roosevelt Corporation, which was a smaller company than ours. The manager and assistant manager changed positions. Evelyn Miller was Oliver's secretary, George Grossnickle was the treasurer, and Betty Lee Wright, social chairman. In May, 1930, we had an employees picnic in the form of a picnic feast at McNaughton Park afterwards enjoying dancing in the pavilion to the music of Jimmie Oliver's Orchestra.

Mr. Jones now became financier upon the resignation of Miss Engleman. For the remainder of the second year, James Oliver was manager and Paul Walker his assistant. Evelyn Miller kept the position of secretary. Le Fevre was again treasurer and Ruby Replogle social chairman. We had a party in the Little Theatre, located in the same building which housed our concern.

We called ourselves "Juniors" in our third year, as every one then became a junior partner. In this year, Le Fevre received a promotion; he became the head manager. Walker retained his position. Le Fevre's new secretary was Miriam Brusman. Richard Wyatt accepted the position of treasurer. Florence Heisel was chairman at this time. During the year we gave a play, "Polly's Hero." Prior to this time, we had won second place in the Pennant Annual contest, with our skit "Reminiscence."

Le Fevre was manager for a year with George Grossnickle assisting him the first half and Art Graffis the second half. Betty Lee Wright was his secretary this year, Richard Wyatt, treasurer, and Mary Lucille Overleas, social chairman. We had two parties in the year 31-32; but the big event was the Prom, to entertain the Seniors. It was held at the Spink Hotel, Lake Wawasee.

The last half year before our four year contract expired, we kept the same officers. At this time we held a "Hard Times" party.

On Senior Day at E. H. S., the "Brain Development Company" gave a short play, "Grind Hotel", a parody on Grand Hotel, written by Arthur Graffis. The banquet, held in the cafeteria on January 19, ended our activities until June 1, when Commencement exercises were held.

June Class History

As II D's we chose Miss Sackett sponsor; Lowell Taylor was elected as president, and Pat Cronkigh as vice-president; Jim Keene, treasurer and Eleanor Colbert secretary. Frank Miller as social chairman planned a party for May 10, in the form of a wiener roast and a dance at McNaughton Park.

On September 26, 1931, a group from Roosevelt joined with us in the gym to help elect our officers of the I C class. Lowell Taylor was re-elected president and Ross Borneman, vice-president. Kathryn Koopman as treasurer and Louise Neu as secretary, represented the class from Roosevelt. William Le Fevre was social chairman.

The class presented a one-act play on December 10 for the Christmas Assembly, entitled "The Nine Who Were Muted" and on January 16 the class had a party in the gym.

As II C's we again re-elected Lowell Taylor as president; Glenn Davis was chosen vice-president. Louise Neu was also re-elected, Walter Coveaugh replaced Kathryn Koopman as treasurer. Warren Hapner was elected social chairman.

The class enjoyed a swimming and boating party May 23 at Christiana Lake.

As I B's, we re-elected Lowell Taylor, president; Matthew Patanelli, vice-president; Louise Neu, secretary and Walter Coveaugh, treasurer. Dora Matthew took Warren Hapner's place as social chairman.

We gave the first jitney dance of the semester on October 14.

As II B's, we elected Matthew Patanelli as president and Lowell Taylor as vice-president. Walter Coveaugh was again treasurer. Eleanor Colbert was chosen as secretary and Edward Plank, social chairman.

On March 11 was the first big Junior activity. "Seventeen", by Booth Tarkington, was presented as our Junior class play. Then on April 15 we had a joint party with the I A's in the gym and Little Theatre. Dining was held in the gym and an entertainment in the Little Theatre. The last social activity was the Junior-Senior prom, May 21, at the Spink-Wawasee Hotel.

As I A's the class re-elected Matthew Patanelli, president. Louise Neu was elected vice-president; Ross Borneman, treasurer, and Marian Baker, secretary. Edward Plank was re-elected social chairman. The I A's and II A's had a joint "hard times" party in the gym December 20.

The first of our II A events was the class play, "Boomerang", written by Winchell Smith. This was presented on May 12, and May 24 was Senior Day. Then came the Promenade on May 27, Baccalaureate on May 28, the Senior Banquet on May 29, and finally Commencement on June 1.

The Fighting Fifty is the service organization of the high school. This organization has ushered at basketball games, plays, operettas and concerts, and has aided the school in anything that they were asked to do.

The luncheon and final meeting of the club was held May 17. The officers and new members for the next year were elected at this meeting.

The purpose of the Rah! Rah! Club is to support Elk River High School athletics. The membership is limited to five per cent of the student body.

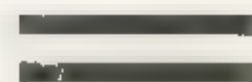

In November the club voted for jackets, which were to be blue corduroy with the club emblem in white on the back of the jacket.

The club continued the practice, begun in 1931, of sponsoring charity work. Teams took charge of collecting and distributing the articles.

Their annual party for the athletes was a clever Davy Jones party given April 29.

The Circus Classicus is composed of Cicero and Virgil students. The club is organized as was the government in early Rome. Its purpose is to further its members' knowledge of Rome and the Romans.

Meetings are held once a month at the homes of members. Roman games are played and knowledge of Roman life and custom is gained by reports.

Each May the club has an annual picnic.

The Spanish Club was organized to further its members' interest in Spanish. Meetings were held once a month. At these meetings reports were given on Spanish customs, various groups of people such as beggars, cowboys and dancers, historical events and cities. Games were played and songs were sung in Spanish.

This year the club has paid for mounting Spanish posters with tourist information on them and has bought some books and Spanish periodicals.

During the first semester a picnic was held at Dora Matthew's home.

The purpose of the Commercial Club is to increase interest in the business world, to become conversant with modern, progressive business methods, thus endeavoring to raise and maintain higher standards of efficiency among Commercial students, and to encourage a social spirit among the members of the department.

The membership is confined to Senior Commercial students and to Juniors whose scholarships average "G" or better in the Commercial subjects.

The members enjoyed their annual party, April 6. The supper meeting was followed by a program during which a play, "His Father's Gone South", was presented.

At Christmas time the club contributed oranges to the Associated Charities.

The club sponsors awards for typing and bookkeeping students.

The Debate Squad worked out a most successful season.

With Resolved: That all hydro-electric power should be owned and operated by the government as their subject, the squad participated in twenty-eight debates; winning twenty-seven, losing but one

In competition for the district title they won nine of the ten debates held with six other schools. They next went to the zone where they defeated Churubusco and then on to the state where, after defeating both Marion and Princeton in the course of the elimination tourney, they downed Hammond in the finals. They brought home a huge cup as the award for their hard-earned state title which they wrested from some eighty-five other schools.

Bill Russell was named as first choice for Indiana's All-State team

THE BAND

At the football games the band merited much praise for its peppy marching and good playing. The band was also present at _____

The band, under the direction of _____ Cheney, gave two free concerts during the year, one on December 12th and the _____ March 31st. Its fine playing was of unusual merit and was enthusiastically received. The _____ for the two concerts were William Ludwig, Paul Crumbaugh, Mel Webster, and William Deitch.

When school began last fall, the band continued its series of half hour programs which were broadcast _____ other Friday morning over WTR.

The district band, orchestra and solo contests were held April 7th and 8th at Columbia City. Twenty-three out of twenty-nine solo entries placed in first division, as well as seven ensembles, the band and the orchestra.

Last year at the National Contest the woodwind quintet, consisting of James Oliver, Dale Gerster, Marion Helm, Margaret Hutchison, and Charles Kellogg won second place.

The State Contest this year was held in LaPorte, May 5th and 6th. The band, orchestra, ensembles and soloists entered from Fikhart. The National Contest will be held in Chicago in June.

The Music Department _____ the Coe College Military Band in a concert March 2nd.

THE ORCHESTRA

The orchestra under the direction of Mr. David Hughes gave spring and fall concerts in conjunction with the band and Glee Club. The soloists were James Oliver, Mel Webster, and Richard Abel.

Every alternating Friday the orchestra broadcasts over WTRC from 11:30 to 12:00.

A small orchestra, selected by Mr. Hughes, played for the Junior and Senior Class plays; also the string ensemble played for various school affairs, on luncheons, and organizations throughout the city.

Some of the members of our orchestra represented our high school in the orchestra which played for the North Central district teachers' convention held in South Bend last November.

In the 1932 National Music Contest held at Marion, Indiana, the string sextet composed of Lois Crawford, Kenneth Goad, Lois Smith, Jack Heist, Ruth Holmes, and Lois Meisner, took first place. The string quintet composed of Jane Dinehart, Richard Harmon, Rudolph Smole, Elwood Hemund and Jane Robertson took second place. The Dramatics Club, in all of its meetings has tended to carry out its purpose: "To create and further the interest in drama and acting."

The club made two trips to Chicago, one on December 3rd to see "Merry Go Round" and the other on April 1st to see "The Family Upstairs." On both trips they also visited costuming houses and other places of interest in connection with dramatics.

The club presented three one act plays, "Raw men", "Wisdom Teeth", and "A String of Pearls", the proceeds of which were turned over to the book fund which was created for the purpose of supplying students with books. The club also presented Dickens "Christmas Carol" for the Annual Christmas program given for the public.

NEW BROOMS

New Brooms ran for a year in New York and had a record breaking engagement in the Backstone theatre in Chicago. The play deals with, and appeals to, father and sons first of all. 'It is a wise father that knows as much as his own son', says the elder Bates as he listens to the advice young Tom gives him concerning the running of his business. The son feels too, that he can manage the motherless household better than his father, and when he is given the opportunity, he finds difficulties and complications which he had not expected. It's a familiar theme. The struggle of youth's energetic optimism against prudence gained by parental experience, and the author guides us to a sound and sensible conclusion.

one of the best fullbacks Elkhart High School has ever seen, and the high scorer for the season, received honorable mention at fullback on the All-State selections. His absence will be keenly felt next year.

LEWY "ELUSIVE" ROWE, who out-starred Jim Clark, first team all state man, in Elkhart's upset victory over South Bend Central, was named on the third All-State selection. Lewy was the life-saver and spark plug of this year's football team.

• COACH Boone's Blue Avalanche enjoyed a highly successful season in 1932. In a tough 13-game schedule they won eleven games, tied one, and lost one. Their total points were 215—thirty-four touchdowns and eleven extra points. Their opponents were able to score but 51—seven touchdowns, two safeties, two extra points, and one field goal. Their 13-7 win over the South Bend Bears crowned them eastern division champions of the N. I. H. S. C. Although they dropped the conference play-off game to Washington of East Chicago, they were considered one of the best, if not the best team, in Indiana. The Blue Avalanche had as good a title to the state championship as any team that played football here in 1932.

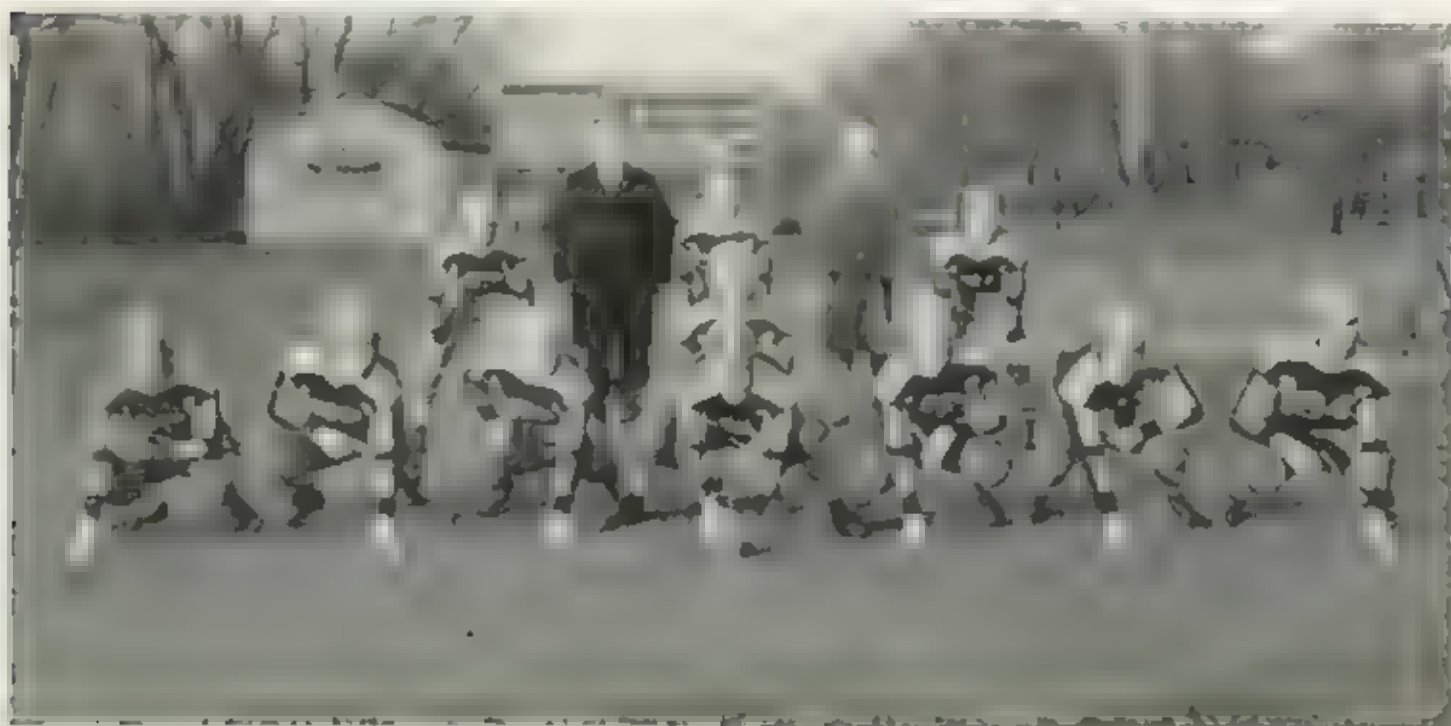

CHEER LEADERS

Elkhart's Blue Avalanche opened its strenuous 13-game season with Barbourville. The Kentucky eleven was steam-rolled in approved Avalanche fashion, 25 to 6, with little difficulty, and in a sweltering heat. Although the Blue Avalanche had had but a week of practice before the game, the victory was a comparatively easy one, since Elkhart scored a touchdown in each quarter. Barbourville's lone tally came late in the last quarter as the result of a pass. This was against the second team. Fumbles were frequent, for the teams played under a broiling summer sun. Coach Boone used two teams, starting a team with five lettermen and six veteran players from the year before. Matthew Patanelli, all-state end, was back at his left wing position, while Hugh Cummins held down the other end of the line. Borneman and Fribley played tackle positions, and Grossnickel and Wenzel played as guards on either side of "Mush" Ritter, the center. In the backfield, George Huntington, quarterback, played a fine game. This was his only game of the season, since he was severely injured in practice the week following and was unable to play for the rest of the season. Jocks and Smithers played at half positions, and Rose took the duties of full back. The second team came in before the half and played until the last three minutes of the game. Smithers got two of the four touchdowns; Ball and Rowe scored the other two. Rose made the extra point after the first touchdown on a plunge.

For the open date the next week a game was scheduled with Mt. Carmel, Catholic League Champions of Chicago. The game was an 0 to 0 tie. Both teams played a defensive game and lacked the punch needed to cross the goal line. Mt. Carmel threatened but once, and that was when a Chicago player fell on a dropped punt on our 4½-yard line. The Blue and White forward wall then showed its power on defense and set them back four yards in as many downs. Elkhart out-gained the Irish, 154 yards to 67, and made six first downs to their four.

The next week the Avalanche again played good defensive football, but this time they had a powerful offense to go with it, and beat Fort Wayne Central, 18 to 0. This battle with the Tigers marked the end of pre-conference games. Elkhart scored in the first quarter. A concerted drive down the field put it on the 13-yard line, from where Smithers carried it over. The second score came when Wenzel, who was now playing right half back, took it over in the third quarter. The ball was soon again in scoring position and Boone then sent in the second string, who muffed their scoring chance. The third string was then put in after the second had intercepted passes to regain the ball. In two plays they took it over, Plank making the six points on a long left end run just as the gun went off for the end of the game.

The first conference game for Elkhart proved very successful when they traveled to La Porte to spend the afternoon at the expense of the Slicers. The score at the final gun was 25 to 0 in favor of the Blue Avalanche. They scored a touchdown in the first and third quarters and two in the last. Patanelli's defensive play and Rowe's offensive play were the outstanding features of the game. Lewy made three of the four touchdowns. His first came as the final 11-yard run at the end of a drive down the field in which he and Smithers carried the ball 53 yards to the goal in five plays. His second came in the third quarter on a 27-yard run, and his third came in the last quarter on a brilliant 61-yard run through the entire LaPorte team. Weaver made the other two touchdowns on a 41-yard run and a 1-yard plunge just before Rowe's final score. Smithers passed to Patanelli for the extra point after Weaver's touchdown.

Elkhart's second conference game was at South Bend with Riley. The Wildcats were set back 20 to 0 as a result of Elkhart's last quarter drive which netted three touchdowns. This was the first evidence of the power that in later games remained hidden until the last quarter. Jake Rose, the fullback, scored two touchdowns. The first came after Ritter had recovered a Riley fumble on the 20-yard line. Rowe and Smithers took the ball 4 yards and then Rose crashed through the Wildcat's 3-yard line. In two more plays he carried it over for the first touchdown. After an exchange of punts Elkhart had the ball on the Riley 25-yard, from whence Rose carried it to the goal on a smashing line plunge from a fake punt formation. A forward pass, Smithers to Patanelli, made the extra point. After the kickoff, Elkhart again got the ball on downs on the Riley 30-yard line. Weaver, Rowe, Smithers and Rose carried the ball to make it a touchdown. Another pass to Matty from Smithers made the extra point. Elkhart had been held on the Riley 3-yard line three times in the first three quarters, but finally showed the power that won the game in the last few minutes.

Next week, the Blue Avalanche again came through, winning its third straight conference victory, with the Mishawaka Cavemen as the victim. Elkhart scored twice on runs by quarterback Bob Weaver, who was one of the outstanding players of the day. Weaver scored his first touchdown in the third quarter on a right end run that went way across the field and eleven yards to the end zone. Mishawaka then came back with a dangerous passing attack after failing to gain through the line. In the fourth quarter they reached our 1-yard line via the air route, but the day was saved when Dave Le Fevre, who played roving center in place of the injured Ritter, tackled Hildebrand, their fullback, so hard that he fumbled the ball. Captain Patanelli came around and recovered for the Blue. Weaver punted out of danger from behind his own goal line. After two more Cavemen threats, the Avalanche drove them back until they had to punt from behind their own goal. Weaver caught the punt and sidestepped Cavemen for 45 yards to cross the goal as the final gun went off. Smithers kicked the goal from placement.

For the seventh game of the season, Coach C. C. Boone scheduled a game with Jefferson of Lafayette. The Blue Avalanche rolled over the downstate eleven with power to spare, and Coach Boone used forty players to give the second and third teams playing experience. The first string started the game and Jenks ran over a score in the first four minutes of play. They regained possession of the ball and drove down the field to the Jefferson 1-yard line. Smithers made the touchdown and passed to Patanelli for the extra point. The seconds went in and a 50-yard pass, Rinaldi to Clup, produced another score. The first team reopened the second half and in three minutes Patanelli had scored on a long around end play. The third string went in and Lafayette scored its only touchdown. Jenks scored another touchdown in the last quarter while playing with the second team. Final score: Elkhart, 31; Jefferson, 6.

After being held scoreless for more than two quarters, the Blue Avalanche downed the Goshen Redskins by the close margin of 6-0. The game consisted mostly in a punting duel between Fullback Kercher of Goshen and Jenks of Elkhart. Kercher made several 50-yard punts against the wind and Jenks persistently punted the ball out of bounds within the Goshen 10-yard line, once putting it where it was downed in the hands of the Redskin quarterback on his 2-inch line. The one dazzling and unexpected play which gave Elkhart the coveted victory came in the third quarter after Kercher had punted to the 50-yard line. Rose, after the Avalanche had gained but three yards in two plays, went back to pass. Carefully choosing the receiver, he threw a 17-yard pass to Captain Patanelli who stepped off the remaining thirty yards between him and the goal. Although the score was only 6-0, the Boonemen heavily outgained the Goshenites, piling up a total of 180 yards and eight first downs to their opponent's 68 yards and three first downs. The only pass completed was the counting play.

Elkhart's Blue Avalanche went through its ninth straight win, administering a thorough licking to the Plymouth Pilgrims. Coach Boone had his eyes on the tough conference game with Michigan City the next Saturday and as a result the regulars played only a little more than half the game. Second and third teams finished for Elkhart. Jake Rose carried the pigskin across the line three times and Rinaldi carried it across once. The first string made a touchdown in the first four minutes, and in less than six minutes more put the ball in scoring position. The second team then entered, and after three plays, Rinaldi crashed through left tackle for the second Elkhart score. Rose made his other two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Traveling to Michigan City, the big Blue Avalanche once again functioned in a spectacular and story-book finish to push over two touchdowns in the last two minutes of play to win the game. "Lewy the Elusive" Rowe wriggled through a Red Devil line and raced forty-five yards to score and to put us ahead after the game had been tied at 13-all. Devil fullback scored in the first three minutes on a 15-yard run. This was the first time a conference foe had scored on us, but the Blue and White players came back in the second quarter and scored two touchdowns to go ahead, 13 to 6. The first came after a determined drive down the field that was halted on the Michigan City 5-yard line. The Red Devils punted out, but the Avalanche came back to hammer at the line, and in seven plays, Rose went over for the tying score. The second touchdown came when a pass from center for Michigan City went astray and rolled back to their 10-yard line. The fumble was recovered by Cummins of Elkhart after Patanelli blocked out the opposing players attempting to get the ball. Rowe then took the pig skin five yards through right tackle, and Rose went through left tackle to score on the next play. Smithers passed to Rowe for the extra point. In the third quarter Michigan City played flashy football and Fox foxed the Boonemen in a 30-yard scoring run. Movinski dropkicked the extra point to tie the score, 13 to 13. There it remained until the last two minutes when Rowe made his 45-yard run to the end zone. A Smithers-to-Patanelli pass made the extra point. The last score came when Cummins intercepted one of the Imp's passes, and on the first play Jake Rose smashed through the left side of the line to race thirty-five yards for a touchdown. Smithers kicked the goal from placement. Final score: Elkhart, 27; Michigan City, 13.

The South Bend Bears, holders of the state and conference titles and possessors of twenty-four straight victories, were overwhelmed by a powerful eleven-cylinder Avalanche from Elkhart. Before a crowd of 8,000 fans who filled School Field, a team of fighting Blue came from behind to tie the score at the half, and to march down the field in the fourth quarter to score the winning touchdown in the last minute. As in the Michigan City game, Elkhart looked bad at the start when Clark, colored flash of the Bears, scored a touchdown in the first three minutes of play and when Wygant ran off tackle for the extra point. However, the slumbering Avalanche soon woke up and for the rest of the game South Bend was held in check. Wygant could not get his punts off properly, and with Jenks kicking in fine form, the Boonemen kept the Bears in their own territory. After holding them within their 10-yard stripe the Blue team finally got the ball on the 26-yard line on one of Wygant's lizzie punts. Rose, Jenks, and Rowe made it a first down four plays, at the 13-yard line, and Rowe raced around right end to the Bear's 1-yard line. From here he drove into a pile of players and came out a few inches over the goal line. Smithers entered the game and made a perfect kick from placement for the extra point. The third quarter was featured by the exchange of punts and play was mostly in midfield. Elkhart got the ball on South Bend's 27-yard line as the quarter ended. From here they went to the 1-yard line in two plays, and Weaver went wide around end for a touchdown, but this was not counted as an Elkhart player was holding. The Bears took the ball after two more plays and drove on down the field. They were finally halted and the Avalanche took the ball on its own 8-yard line after a South Bend punt. It was here that the fighting Blue came through, and Elkhart started on the 92-yard drive that netted the winning touchdown in the last minute of the game. Rose, Rowe, and Jenks carried the ball down the field in spectacular plays to place it on the 4-yard line, from where Jake Rose crashed over in two plays. Smithers again came in to kick, but was unsuccessful and the score was: Elkhart, 13; South Bend Central, 7. Coach Boone used the same players that he had started at the beginning of the season. Patanelli played his fourth S. B. game and the best game of his high school career. Borne-man played a fine game at tackle in his third S. B. game. Grossnickel and Wenzel held down the guard positions for the Bears. Ritter's brilliant defensive play was matched only by that of Patanelli. Sweitzer and Cummins stopped almost every play at their end. In the backfield it was "Lewy the Elusive" Rowe who put speed into the Blue attack and halted Clark on two goal-bound runs. His play was matched by that of Jenks, Rose, and Weaver who formed with the other players a co-ordinating unit that could not be beaten. Smithers, Simmons, Bowers, and Hooper deserve equal praise for their playing.

The Elkhart Blue Avalanche was finally halted, 14 to 6, by the Senators of Washington, western division champions in the play-off of the N. I. H. C., at East Chicago. This was the first defeat the Boonemen suffered in twelve games. The eastern champs' hopes were running high at the half, after marching 77 yards down the field for the only score, giving them a 6 to 0 lead. However the Senators were not long retaliating and an Elkhart punt blocked by the Senators gave them a pair of valuable points and the ultimate winners gathered momentum. Although they were behind, 6 to 2 at the half, marked indications had been made in the second quarter of what the Senators were going to do in the last half. In the third quarter, Steve Stan, the Washington halfback who afterwards was picked as All-State, galloped 20 yards for the Senators' first touchdown. He ran 25 yards in the final quarter to sew up the game. Elkhart kicking was poor both on kick-offs and punts. Fumbles were costly and passes went awry, and all-in-all it was not an Elkhart day. The game was played on a muddy clay field and this affords some explanation.

In the last game of the year the Boonemen eked out a 6 to 5 victory from the South Siders of Fort Wayne. This brought to a finish the Avalanche's highly successful campaign, with a record of eleven wins, one tie, and one defeat, and gave the locals one of the best seasons in the state to boast of. Although the Boonemen were defeated by the Senators, we all believe and always will believe the locals had the best team in the state for 1932. Lewy Rowe in the first quarter scored the first touchdown after a 28-yard run. A blocked Elkhart punt in the second quarter and a place kick by Fort Wayne in the third quarter gave the South Siders their only points.

That the Boonemen were able to hold a margin of any kind at all was a credit to them considering the circumstances which crowded the four toughest games of the season into a fifteen-day period. The winning of the Fort Wayne game ended one of the most successful seasons the Boonemen have enjoyed in many years.

SANDBUR FOOTBALL

This was named "Sandbur" football instead of Interclass, because of the number of sandburs that accumulate on the boys every fall.

Freshmen and Sophomores have played in the Sandbur league for the last two years. The Juniors and Seniors were dropped because of lack of outfits. The only outfits obtainable were the left-over suits from the varsity team.

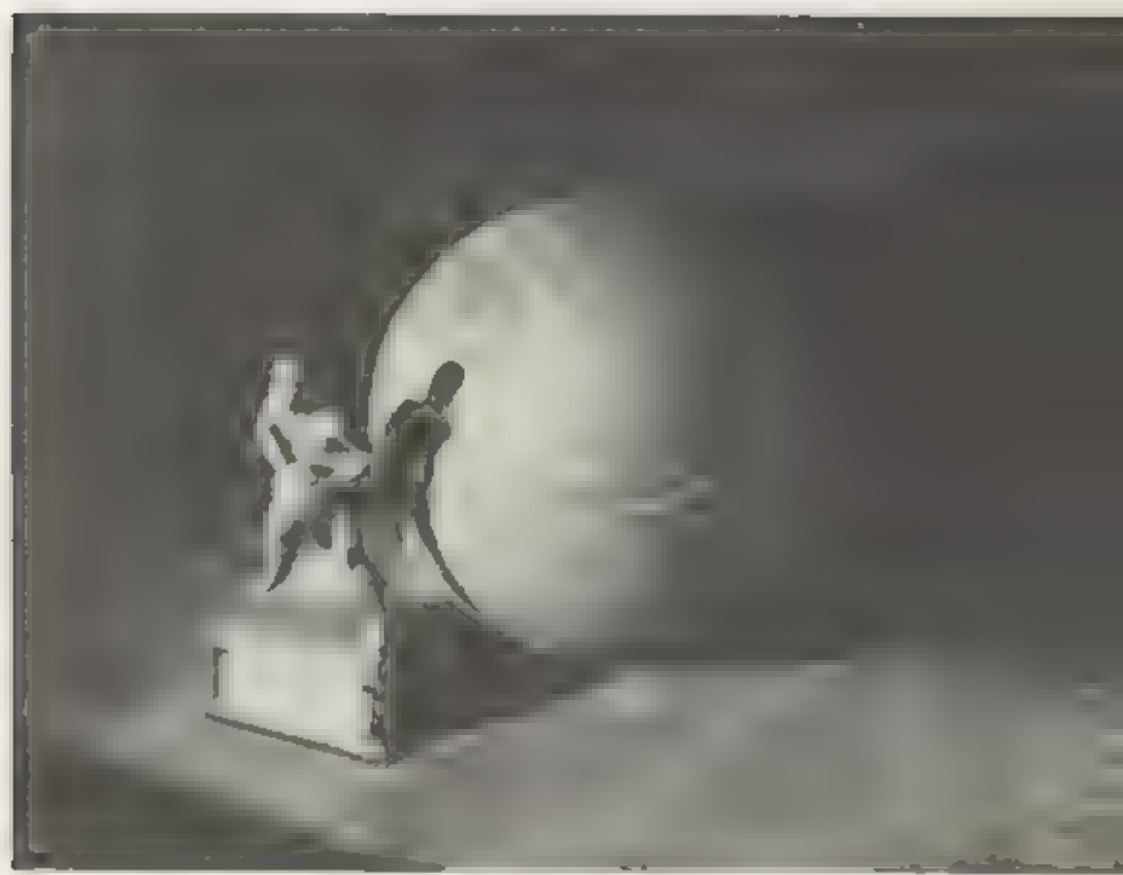

Mr. Longfellow was in charge of the Sandbur football. In the absence of Juniors and Seniors he started the seventh and eighth grade boys. They did not have equipment but were taught the fundamentals, signals and were allowed dummy scrimmage.

The Freshman A team won the league, and the eighth grade team won the B league.

BASKETBALL

• BASKETBALL in the sports year of 1932-33, the year ofigsaw puzzles, buck moon rotations, and depression, enjoyed a boom season as far as the Blue Blazers were concerned. Coach Longfellow had five boys from the year before, and from these he molded a team which made basketball history. There were three six footers, Matthew, Al Slater, Pitman, David, Al LeFevre, and Hugh Red Cummins, and two smaller and faster players, Austin Bantam, Specs and Towch, (Cutfoot) Taylor. LeFevre jumped center and then fell back to play guard position, while Captain Pitman went up to play center. Specs was the other guard; Cummins and Taylor played as forwards.

Pitman was the best basket maker, and it was his "Pitman pivot" shot that made the most points for the Blue. He secured 214 of the entire 517 points made by the Blazers in their twenty three games. "Mitty" was also third high scorer in the eastern division of the conference. Red Specs was second high scorer for Eshart, and ranked sixth in the scoring list of eastern division players. Both Specs and Pitman were given place on the All East division team.

● ELK HART opened the season with an easy win over La Grange, winning 42 to 21. Patanelli started the season out right by making eight baskets and one free throw, while Taylor showed speed and ability in making five baskets.

Mishawaka cancelled their game, and one was scheduled with a Chicago team, Calumet. The "Temulacs" went down before a baffling Blazer attack to the tune of 28 to 15. The superior height of Teterow, Patanelli and Cummins was a decided advantage, but it was Taylor, the smallest player, who was high point man.

Conference play opened with the Michigan City Red Devils. The game was a nip and tuck battle all the way, and Elkhart had to come from behind where they had trailed for three quarters to finally go ahead, 14 to 13 on a free throw by Cummins, and baskets by Patanelli and Speas. Kramer then put the Red Devils ahead, 15 to 14, on a fast out-of-bounds play, but Cummins saved the day when he tied the score at 15 all with a free throw on Angrick's foul. The game ended with this score, and the Blazers came out in the overtime period to control the ball and make two baskets, the first by Patanelli and the last by Speas. Final score: Elkhart, 19; Michigan City, 15.

The following night another thriller was played at Goshen, with Elkhart again winning in overtime. With the Blazers behind, 24 to 26, in the fourth quarter, Patanelli blocked a Redskin pass in mid court. The ball was recovered by Taylor, who dribbled the length of the court to sink the shot that tied the game. In the overtime, Cummins made a follow-up shot to make the score as it remained at the final gun, 28 to 26.

After four straight wins, however, the Blazers were handed their annual Christmas present by the Nappanee Bulldogs, in the form of a 21 to 18 defeat. The Blazers had an off night at the free throw line, for it was there that they lost the game. Elkhart made eight baskets to Nappanee's seven. The game did not count in conference standings.

Considerably chastened by the defeat of the week before, the Blazers traveled to Culver to trounce them by a 29 to 10 score. Eleven Elkhart players entered the game and seven made the scoring column. Culver sank but four baskets.

The second team to defeat the Blue was Valparaiso, a western division team. The Blazers went down 29 to 26, again, by a three point margin. Superior marksmanship won the game for the Vikings, while Elkhart seemed to lack this important asset. Patanelli made two baskets and six free throws, to tie with Powell of the visitors for high point honors.

For the second conference game the Blazers traveled to La Porte where they gave the Sheers a 32 to 23 thrashing. Patanelli paced the Blue, scoring six baskets. Holding a one point lead at the half, the Blazers staged a third quarter attack that put them in a comfortable lead of 25 to 14. The Sheers staged a 9-point rally in the last quarter, but the Blazer's lead was never threatened.

Matthew Patanelli

CAPTAIN MATTHEW PATANELLI, the best pivot man ever to play on an Elkhart team, graduated this spring. "Matty" was high point man for the Blazers and ranked third in the scoring list of eastern division players.

Elkhart the next night was still plenty hot, and handed the South Bend Central outfit one of the worst defeats any team has yet been given in this sector. The Bears went down, 29 to 5, for the Elkhart defense held them to one basket and three free throws.

The third conference game was won in a lifeless battle at Mishawaka. The Maroons were defeated by an 18 to 9 score, and brought down on themselves all the sympathy and tender pathos that the South Bend sports writers could muster up. Mishawaka had canceled the first game and then asked us to postpone the second, on the excuse that the entire team had influenza. Coach Boone, Director of Athletics, refused, for Elkhart had no open date in common with Mishawaka. The game caused unwarranted criticism, and ill-feeling on both sides was created. When the game was played, only one Maroon regular was absent from the lineup.

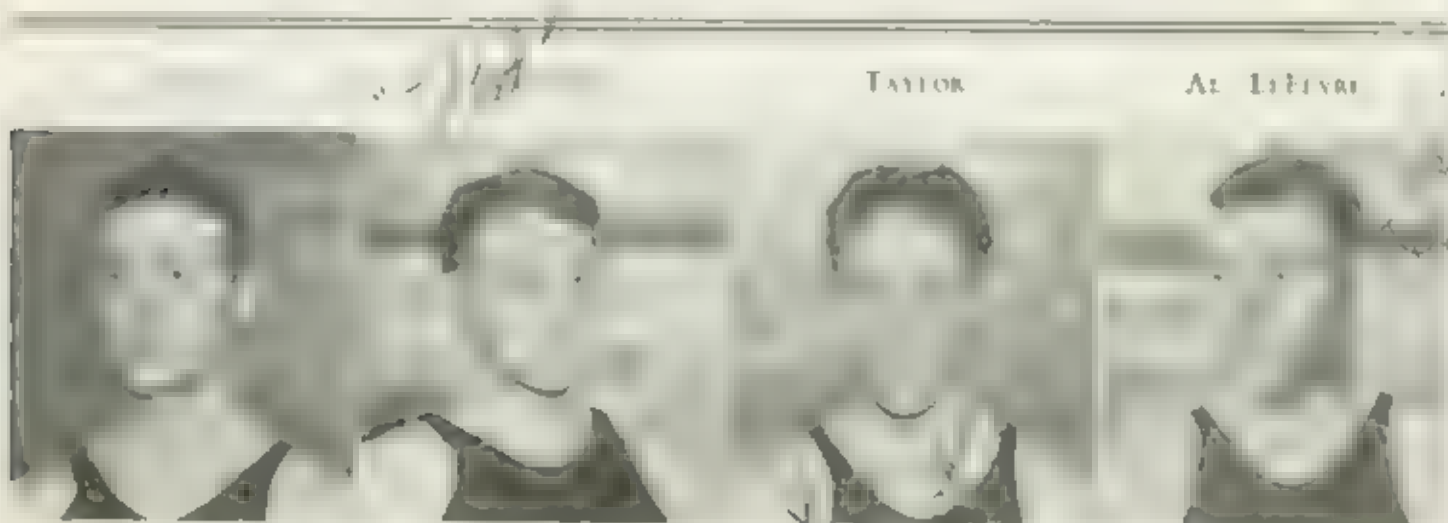

The next week, the Plymouth Pilgrims traveled here to fall easy prey to the Blazers, who led all the way. However, the victory was won without the services of Le Fevre, first string guard, who had sprained his ankle in practice and was out for the next three games. Elkhart scored 23 points, most of which were made by Patanelli, Speas, and Cummins. The Pilgrims made 13 to give the Blue a 10 point margin.

Warsaw went down before the Blazers by the easy score of 26 to 20. Once the team was ahead, Coach Longfellow used mostly reserves. Captain Patanelli made eight baskets during the sixteen minutes he played.

Elkhart's fourth conference victory was won in one of the most hectic games yet played by any team to represent Elkhart High. Traveling to South Bend to play the Riley Wildcats in their pocket-edition gymnasium, the Blue Blazers finally won, 28 to 26, in overtime. Forty-six fouls were called by the officials in their calling spree, twenty-three on each team. During the game, three Elkhart players and the entire Riley first team went out on fouls. In the overtime period, the Riley coach had to call a player from the crowd, who played in his street clothes. Riley led 14 to 11 at the half, and the score was tied at 20 all at the end of the third quarter, and at 26 all at the gun. Cummins made the winning basket in the overtime, while Patanelli was high point man with three baskets and five three throws.

Elkhart traveled to Winamac to down that quintet, 29 to 24, in a clean, close game. The Blazers came from behind at first to tie the score. Then they again went under, but were resuscitated by baskets from Patanelli, Speas, and Weaver. In the third quarter, Patanelli made all six points scored for the Blue, and this lead was not lost in a fast last quarter. Matty's total was seven baskets and two free-throws.

Nappanee proved to be an Elkhart jinx and won a well deserved victory to hand us our first conference defeat. The battle was tight and defensive. Elkhart lost on its accuracy, both from the field and free-throw line. Le Fevre's playing was handicapped by his ankle injury, but credit must go to the Bulldogs, for their's was a well-earned victory. The final score was: Elkhart, 19; Nappanee, 21.

The Central Bears received their second defeat at our hands, and this time it counted in the conference standings. The game was much closer, although Elkhart held South Bend without a goal until the last half minute of the second quarter. The victory was narrow, and kept Elkhart at the head of the conference. Patanelli and Speas made 12 lay-up baskets, each making 10 baskets from the floor. South Bend scored in the first quarter rally, but it was not enough to suck the Blazers in. Final score: Elkhart, 29; South Bend, 19.

After taking their easy victory at South Bend, the Blue Blazers played the Kendallville Comets and put them down, 24 to 14. Hart, of the visitors, tied the score at 11-all at the start of the third quarter, but with this threat, the Blazers came out of their coma and played real basketball.

A capacity crowd watched the Blazers decisively defeat the Goshen Redskins in Elkhart's last eastern division conference game. This victory cinched the division title for the Blue Blazers and gave them the right to the play-off with the western division champs. Elkhart showed perhaps the best form of the season and held a Redskin quintet that was primed to do or die to 16 points, while mounting a score of 24 for themselves. Patanelli was at his best, making four goals and two free-throws while holding Getz, the Goshen flash, to a lone bucket.

The Valparaiso Vikings had tied with Froebel for the championship in that division, and the right to play the Blazers was decided by the flip of a coin. The Vikings won by five points, the final score being 21 to 16. Elkhart started off with a 6 to 0 lead, and led 8 to 6 at the half, but cooled down considerably in the last two quarters, while Valparaiso warmed up, and went out in front to stay there and bring home the bacon.

Regular season games closed with Fort Wayne Central the following night. Elkhart won after a see-saw battle, by a score of 33 to 29. Central held a three-point lead in the last quarter, but "Red" Cummins and company staged a rally at this point and sent the Blazers into a lead which they kept to the gun. Cummins and Patanelli made five baskets apiece, while four other Blue players put their bid in for one each.

When sectional drawings came out, Elkhart had the misfortune to draw Nappanee for the first round battle. The game was close and well played by both teams and the fans were treated to a rough, fast, exciting scrap, for the Bulldogs and Blazers "shot the works." The Bulldogs started out with a bang and got a 6 to 2 lead in the first quarter, but the Blazers went ahead in the second quarter to hold the lead to the finish. The team was clicking and the entire first string shared in the scoring. Speas was injured in the third quarter and was helped from the floor. The final score was for the Blazers with a considerable margin, being 26 to 20.

In the second game, Elkhart opened with power to spare and swarmed over a weak Dunlap quintet, 41 to 12. Culp and Patanelli were high point men, and Coach Longfellow used plenty of reserves.

The Blazers' basketball season was closed with a defeat, as was that of all teams but one in the state. After a successful season in which they were defeated but three times, the Indians entered the sectional with the determination to upset favorites, and this they did only too well. The Blazers started out well and got a 11 to 6 lead at the first quarter, but slowed down the last three, while Wakarusa came up. Some solace for the Blazers was gained from the fact that Goshen, too, had been upset by New Paris. The Indians went on to win the regional by successive upsets, but were snowed under in their first game at state by a big Greencastle five that went on to the finals.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

Interclass basketball was played this winter by a large number of boys, so many that they were divided into four leagues. The boys played two nights a week throughout the season, the first part of which was devoted to fundamentals and team organization, and the last part to a 12-game schedule. Mr. Boone organized the league and the elimination tournament at the end of the year. The Senior A team won the pennant race, with 11 wins and 1 loss. They were chosen the gold basketball winner for the year for the best playing ability and sportsmanship. Kenny Clevenger, captain of the Senior A team, scored more than 100 points to win high point honors for all leagues; Blocker was high point man in the B league and Rickey in the C league. In the D league 65 boys played among themselves throughout the season, and were allowed to enter the elimination tournament. Several of their teams made good showings.

THE 1932 Blue and White Thinly Clads went through the season with a record so far unequalled by any Blue Streak squad, having won four dual meets, with Mishawaka, Fort Wayne, South Bend, and Kalamazoo; one triangular meet with LaPorte and Goshen; a victory at the sectional; a second place at the conference and state meets, taking second only to a strong Froebel team in both cases. This good record was due to a large number of individual stars backed by consistent winners of second and third places.

NOTRE DAME AND MISHAWAKA

The season opened at the Notre Dame invitational meet. Although Elkhart took fifth place with only a week's practice, they made it up at the outdoor meets. The next week the Blue Streaks won a close meet from Mishawaka, while Dave Hunn was winning the pole vault at the state indoor meet, breaking the indoor record, with a vault of 12 ft. 5 1/2 in. Elkhart garnered five out of a possible thirteen firsts but made the other points up in seconds and thirds, and by scoring a slam in the 220 yd. low hurdles. Dotson was absent on account of a cold.

FORT WAYNE-CENTRAL

The next victim of the Blue Streaks was North Side of Fort Wayne, who fell to the tune of 79 to 30. Elkhart scored grand slams in the quarter mile, half mile, and mile runs; and placed consistently in the other events, winning both relays.

The following Saturday, South Bend Central fell to the Blue Streaks, 23 1/2 to 85 1/2. Elkhart scored five grand slams in this meet and wins in both relays, the slams were in the quarter mile, half mile, and mile runs and both hurdle races. Hunn and Heltrick neared the Rice field records in the pole vault and low hurdle events.

GOSHEN AND LA PORTE, TRIANGULAR

Next, a triangular meet with Goshen and LaPorte, at Goshen, afforded new fields of conquest for the Blue and White. Barney Phillips, Dave Hunn and Jack Heltrick, of Elkhart, set new Foreman field records in the quarter mile, 220 yd. low hurdles, and the pole vault. Other Boonemen gathered ten of a possible thirteen first places, including both relays.

N. I. H. S. CONFERENCE

After this series of four victories, the Blue Streaks went to the conference meet, where they took a second place, running a strong second to the powerful Froebel team. First place winners were: Weiler in the quarter mile; Dotson in the half mile; Hunn in the pole vault, and the mile relay team. Second place winners were Helfrick, Myers, Patanelli, Phillips, and Burke. The half mile relay team and Trautman won fourth places; Johnson won a fifth place.

SECTIONAL

The Elkhart Blue Streaks won the Sectional meet by a big margin, and qualified 13 of the Boonemen for the state meet. At this same meet they shattered two records, Hunn in the pole vault, with a vault of 12 ft. 3 in., and the mile relay team, (Trautman, Myers, Phillips, Dotson), who completed the four laps in the record time of 3:33.9.

STATE

At the state meet the Boonemen again made a good showing by placing second to the Froebel of Gary thinyclads. Dave Hunn took the only first place and tied the state pole vault record; Barney Phillips and both relay teams took second places; Dotson took a third in the half mile; Helfrick and Weiler took fifth places in the low hurdles and the quarter mile, giving Elkhart second place with a total of 22 points.

KALAMAZOO

The Elkhart Blue Streaks closed this record season with an easy victory over Kalamazoo, 79 $\frac{1}{4}$  to 34 $\frac{1}{4}$ . The Elkhart squad broke eight Kalamazoo field records including Barney Phillips all-time I. H. S. record quarter mile run of 51.2 seconds.

RICE FIELD RECORDS

Elkhart holds eight of the present records. The 1932 team broke or tied three of these. They were: Dotson in the 880-yard run; Hann in the pole vault, and the mile relay, composed of Trautman, Myers, Philips, and Dotson. Irons, from North Side of Fort Wayne, broke the high jump record this spring.

HIGH POINT WINNERS

Dave Hunn, "Horrible Herman", was second high point man and leader in the field events. Early in the season he broke the state indoor pole vault record by almost a foot, going over the top at 12 feet 5  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches. He was never defeated and at state he tied the existing record with a vault of 12 feet 7 inches.

Jack Helfrick, diminutive and versatile Herman, ran the 100 and 220 yard sprints, the 220 yard low hurdles, and the half mile relay. In the sectional he tied the field and broke the sectional records by going over the low sticks in 26.7 seconds. At state he placed a close fifth and at conference he took a second.

Both Jack and David have been lost to the squad by graduation. David went to Michigan where he has already gone over 13 feet in practice.

THE Blue and White Racqueteers went through their 1932 season undefeated. Coached by Miss Catherine Wolf and led by Captain "Bud" Speas, the Racqueteers were able to defeat all of their opponents and win the N. I. H. S. C. crown.

The Racqueteers opened their season April 21 with Goshen, and decisively defeated them by a 5-0 score.

The South Bend Bears gave Elkhart a real scare in the second match on May 3. The E. H. S. Racqueteers won by a score of 3-2. Taylor and Strinz won their single matches, and Speas and Taylor won their double match.

The Goshen Redskins came here May 13 and were defeated again by a 5-0 score. Coach Wolf used a new Sopomore doubles combination, Olson and D. Holden, who were victorious.

The Elkhart squad drew a bye on May 17, but met Riley May 18 and defeated them by a 4-1 score.

Nappanee came here the next night and was defeated by a 5-0 score. Coach Wolf used Bill Ecker, who won his match.

On May 21 Austin Speas and "Dode" Taylor went to the St. Joe Valley Invitational Meet where Speas won the championship. Taylor was eliminated in the quarter finals.

On May 24 the Mishawaka Maroons came here and were defeated by a 6-0 score. The Elkhart team showed too much class for the Maroons and easily defeated them.

The Elkhart Netmen took to the road again and defeated the LaPorte Slicers by a 5-0 score. Every man on the squad won with considerable ease.

On June 4 the tennis team went to Kalamazoo where they were victorious by a 4-1 score.

On June 11 the western division champion, Emerson of Gary, came here to play the Elkhart team for the conference championship. The Blue and White Racqueteers won the championship by a 4-1 score. Speas, Elkhart's number one man, defeated his man and Taylor who played the best game of his career was also victorious. Strinz, the only Senior on the squad, ran into stiff competition and was defeated.

The summary of the year's record is:

April 21	Goshen, 0	E. H. S., 5
May 3	Central (S. B.), 2	E. H. S., 3
May 13	Goshen, 0	E. H. S., 5
May 18	Riley (S. B.), 1	E. H. S., 4
May 19	Nappanee, 0	E. H. S., 5
May 21	St. Joe Valley meet won by Speas.

• DUE to a demand for curtailment of the wrestling program and lack of finances, our team, composed of green material, was off to a slow start in a short season of grappling.

Two opponents were met in dual meets with return engagements—South Bend Central and Concord. Elkhart was defeated twice by the former, 26½ to 13½ and 24 to 9; but won from Concord, 45 to 5 and 39 to 3.

Five boys represented our school in the conference meet at East Chicago, winning second place in team standings. Wilkinson won the 100 lb. championship. Hapner, Sweitzer, and Rose placed second in their respective weight divisions. These boys also went to the state but failed to score a point.

The squad as a whole did fine work considering the short time in which each had to prepare himself for competition. Among the outstanding performers were: McHatton, Wolfe, Kendall, Jenks, and others. A fine nucleus is left for another team.

GIRLS ATHLETICS

• UNDER the tutelage of Miss Catherine Wolf, girls took added interest in competitive athletics. Tennis, volley ball, and basketball were included in their sports year of 1932-33.

Tennis was played for the first six weeks of the fall semester, and in the final tournament, Elmer Smith met and defeated Dorothy Stuckman, 8-6, 10-8, and Kathryn Koopman met and defeated Catherine Wilhelm, 6-2, 6-3. These were in the semi-final matches. In the finals, Koopman defeated Smith, 6-2, 6-0.

Volley ball was played from the end of the tennis season up to Thanksgiving. Teams were captained by Virginia Briggs, Marietta Kline, Evelyn Traux, and Hazel Strawser. Hazel Strawser's team finished first in league play, and Marietta Kline's team finished second.

With the close of volley ball, the basketball season was started. The girls played in the gymnasium of the Trinity M. L. Church. The season was divided into two divisions of play. The first was Intramural play, and the second was Interclass. Preceding the choosing of Intramural teams were several weeks of practice. Eight teams entered into the league competition, and about 185 girls were out for the sport. Teams I and VI, captained by Evelyn Traux and Doris Kehres respectively, tied for first place, each winning six games and losing but one. In the play off, Doris Kehres' team won, 12 to 4.

Interclass teams were then chosen up, one from each class. The Freshmen were captained by Lula Freshaur, the Sophomores by Lileen Hufty, the Juniors by Hazel Strawser, and the Seniors by Ruth Enos.

The Juniors won the Interclass championship, winning three games and losing none. The Seniors put up a hard fight, however, and the deciding game between them was won, 14 to 13, after an exciting battle. The Sophomores and the Freshmen took third and fourth places.

JUNE WILL

We, the June Class of 1933, being of sound mind and good judgment, and aware that our present organization is soon to be dissolved, do hereby execute and declare this document to be our last will and testament hereby revoking and declaring null and void all previous attempts toward the disposal of our various assets and qualifications of worth.

Therefore our bequests are as follows: May the recipients of our benefactions profit thereby.

1. We, the June Seniors of 1933, leave our immediate possessions and attempts to set a standard for the underclassmen to the worthy Juniors in order that they may follow in our dignified footsteps.

2. Colbert and Keene leave their editorships to Mary Elizabeth White and Wendell Wright.

3. Mattie Patanelli bequeaths his athletic ability to Harry Ludwig.

4. Ronnie Younce wills that romantic voice to George O'Dell.

5. Harriet May leaves the biggest share of her height to little Paul Berkey.

6. Helen Sears' "gift of gab" is entirely entrusted to Mary Jeanette Godfrey; may she not use it so extensively.

7. "Dode" Taylor ungrudgingly wills his daily stick of gum to "Tuffy" Bragg with sincere hopes that he doesn't have to spit it out as often as "Dode" did.

8. Margaret Lynch bestows her curly locks upon the head of Rachel "Dolly" Hunn.

9. To Alice Jane Bruns is left all of Marian Baker's sweetness.

10. Ralph Magnusen thoughtfully bequeaths that dignified air to Maurie Treener.

11. Bill Russell entrusts Joe Ackley with his business ability.

12. To Dick Abel is left Marion Helm's musical inclinations.

13. Ruth Enos leaves that shrieking voice, used mostly at football and basketball games, to Verna Olsen.

14. Some of Sweitzer's weight plus his wrestling crown are given to Harry Lunder in hopes that it can increase the number of crowns for good old FHS.

15. Mary Ellen Esch bequeaths her intellectual ability to Beverly Cutshaw.

16. Margaret Schuler and Louise Neu donate their lasting friendship to Betty Sive and Iris Searer.

17. Frank Miller thoughtfully bestows his note-writing ability upon Joe Sellers.

18. To Bill Best is entrusted Ed Plank's ability to plan successful class parties.

19. Marie Gehrand and Arletta Munch leave their positions on the Pennant Staff to a couple of worthy Freshmen.

20. John "Mush" Ritter leaves the strength to "hit that line" to Joe Rinaldi in hopes he can hit it harder.

21. To Miss Sackett we hope that we have left happy remembrances and that she will always be able to look back to the happy days when she was sponsor of our class.

(Signed) HARRIET MAY

"Well yistiddy mo'nin' she done ovahheah him."

"What's an egg?"

"An egg is a chicken not yet."

"Why are you calling up all the hospitals?"

"My friend Snigglebat promised to pay me back five dollars or break a leg. I want to see which one he broke."

Bix: "What is an optimist?"

Dix: "A dead broke guy ordering oysters with the hope that he can pay for his dinner with the pearl."

Miss Cathcart (explaining a theory): "Now if you have all that in your head, you have it all in a nutshell."

"Why do you use such a long cigar holder?"

"The doctor told me to stay away from tobacco."

"Does your father have to pay much for his coal?"

"Not a cent. We live near the railroad tracks and he makes faces at the engineers."

Jenks: "Nice car you've got here, Bill. What's the most you ever got out of it?"

Best: "Nine kisses in one block."

JUNE CLASS PROPHECY

As the crystal stood before us we gazed into its depths. We saw complete darkness; but suddenly the heavens became bright with countless stars (movie stars—Barbara Stanwyck—Vivian Bontrager; John Barrymore—Bill Le Fevre).

The first sight that we saw surprised us, but knowing that the stars tell only the truth we were forced to accept this prophecy.

Many people thronged a vast hall in a large metropolis across the seas. Upon its walls we beheld rows of beautiful paintings among which appeared a large canvas surrounded by smaller ones. Upon the nameplates we read the name of Dorothy Grieb.

Again a building met our gaze and a room within revealed rows of beautiful maidens who read an ancient language. Before them stood one scarcely older than themselves. Could she, perhaps, be Mary Esch? We decided that none but she could have attained the proficiency necessary to teach Latin in a woman's college.

Next appeared two towns, Madden Cooper and Virginia Hatfield—in a building where many youths and maidens thronged the stairway. Many sewing machines and cooking utensils could be seen. One was carefully teaching the art of sewing; the other was vigorously beating a mixture in a large bowl.

Strange people next appeared before us—large, husky men and pale women—in a large and pretentious building. Of it was the United States Embassy in Stockholm with the Hon. Richard Sweitzer at its head. Beside him stood Marian Baker.

Then before us came the confines of a small room, the walls of which were surrounded by many shelves occupied by bottles and test tubes. Working there we found Ralph Magnuson and Jane Herrold.

The office and the day faded from view—a beautiful mansion was the central object of the new scene, and many people appeared who seemed to be coming to an entertainment there. The pleasant young woman who cordially greeted the guests was Isabel Jones. One young man she received with unusual warmth was Maynard Jenks, one of our classmates.

Next our crystal took us to the circus grounds. Many oddly clothed figures rushed about—one of them we recognized to be Jimmy Diener. Another tumbling figure was "Red" Cummins.

A curtain parted and a small company of players were acting. The leading lady was Margaret Hemmers and the leading man was Ross Borneman. Other members of the cast were Mary Jane Barlow, Paul Zeltinger, Ruth Enos, and Robert Best.

A breathless mass of people appeared. What were they looking at? The world famous quintet composed of Margaret Hutchinson, Paul Crumbaugh, Doris Kebres, Geraldine Sullivan, and Lois Stout.

The scene changed to New Carlisle, Indiana. Outside the Old People's Home, whom should we see but Walter Coveaugh waiting patiently for Evelyn Yost.

The various futures of our friends, the members of June '33 Class, have been ordained by the crystal of destiny. It is but a reflection of life's course as set by the stars. What will be, will be.

"We doctors have many enemies in this world."

"Yes, and more in the next."

Did you hear about the man who was so used to sleeping in Pullman berths that when he got home he slept on a shelf with a cinder in each eye?

Man (rescuing English teacher who was going down for the third time): "Hold on tight!"

English teacher: "Don't say tight, say 'Hold on tightly'."

Soph: "What a queer expression on your face."

Freshie: "I was thinking."

Girl tennis star: "You're driving me out of my mind."

Male golf star: "That isn't a drive: that's a putt."

Etiquette note: Never break your bread or roll in your soup.

"Hooray," hummed the mosquito as he bit the Prince of Wales, "at last I have royal blood in my veins."

Tennis player: "That makes five apiece. Shall we play the sixth set now?"

Exhausted opponent: "Say can't we settle this thung out of court?"

"Yes, Jack and I are partners, but we sell different goods."

"How's that?"

"Jack goes around selling a stove polish that leaves a stain on the fingers and then I follow up with the only soap that will take it off."

She (at basketball game): "I don't see how the referee can keep so cool."

He: "That's easy. Look at all the fans around him."

So you come from a small town, eh?"

"The town I come from is so small that they shove the Sunday paper under the front door."

JANUARY CLASS WILL

Since the January '33 Seniors are we
'Tis now our turn to "hereby will and bequeath."

All of our wealth, fabulous and untold
We leave to the teacher, we're "off the gold."

Arthur Graffis wills his fiery crown
To Jack Jones, a Freshman of less renown.

Elinor and Mac leave their high school romance
That others may fall and trip, perchance.

Ott's he-haw and Borneman's too,
Mr. Hall, is bestowed on you.

Florence Heisel so willingly will give Her typing ability to Betty Jane Sive.

Bette Smith bequeaths her winning smile
To Alice Jane Bruns, may it be worth while.

Our chemistry notebooks, to you, Mr. Gill,
To use in your furnace, as you probably will.

Bob Holdeman leaves to Dean, following him,
His kind disposition and perpetual grin.

Dave Le Fevre wills his reserved way
To Maurice Treneer, without any pay.

Mary Koski's sweetness is left behind
This year, for Rachel Hunn to find.

And to Mr. Jones, who has gained gray hairs
In worrying over dumb seniors' cares,

We'll give a bottle of  $H^2 O^2$
To make the rest look like those few.

George Grossnickle's bulk and brawn, if you please,
To the Shreiner Twins, with resemblance like peas.

And then, to Bill Ecker, the class bequeaths
The lightning racquet of Netman Speas.

Now since Joe Lehman is getting through,
He'll leave his medals to all of you.

Ruth Holmes, a leading celloist fair,
Says Dickie Thornton may aspire to her chair.

We'll leave our options, three, one, or two,
To Mr. Sands; they're long overdue.

Mary Kegerries will surely sell
Her Rah! Rah! pin to some poor gal.

All sources of passes from study hall blues
We leave to the Freshman who pays club dues.

These insane ramblings, with us you'll agree,
Should be the last heard from January, '33.

Passerby: "My goodness young man what happened to you?"

Young Man: "My girl threw me a flower."

Passerby: "But how could that cause that bump and that swelling?"

Young Man: "She forgot to detach the window box."

Lord of the Castle: "Away, varlet, I am riding to the hounds."

Tramp: "That's all right. I'm going to the dogs too."

Burglar (having climbed to porch roof): "Another guy sleeping with his window shut. I got a mind to write to the board of health about it."

The man with the suitcase chased the train to the end of the platform. As he walked slowly back mopping his brow an interested spectator spoke to him.

"Miss the train?"

"Oh not very much", was the disarming reply. "You see, I never got to know it very well."

An Irishman was seated in a train beside a pompous individual, who was accompanied by a dog.

"Foin dog ye have", said the Irishman. "Phwat kind is it?"

"A cross between an Irishman and an ape", the man replied.

"Shure and it's related to both of us", said the Irishman.

Boone, putting the trackmen through a set of calisthenics: "Lie on your backs, put your legs up in the air and move them like you were riding a bicycle."

After a short effort one of the men stopped.

"Why are you stopping, Ball?" asked Boone.

"I'm coasting", replied Ball.

Customer (in restaurant): "What is this, beef, pork, or mutton?"

Waiter: "Can't you tell the difference?"

Customer: "No."

Waiter: "Then why worry about it?"

YE OLDE JANUARY 1933 PROPHECY

We, ye January Class of 1933, do believe this prophecy to be written with ye good olde sane and sensible reasoning, and ye most honest opinion.

We do so prophesy:

- that ye young Bobbie Holdeman will ne'er be able to tread in his papa's footsteps, but will in ye stead have the most honorable job in ye good olde E. H. S. as head janitor.
- that ye little Miss Min Brusman will win a marathon for giggling.
- that Al Le Fevre ("All-American") and ye Miss Mary Koski will wed and reside in a white house, aye, aye, but not "ye" White House.
- that Harry Shreiner will be ye champion grave-digger of ye olde County of Elkhart.
- that Mister Paul Bowers will be a "Jack of all trades, but master of none", in ye other words, just an all-around bum.
- that Bob Culp, in addition to farm products, will put ye good olde-fashioned love on the market.
- that ye young Borneman will never be a doctor as he can't cut ye pie in ye "fox and geese" game.
- that ye two Misses Ruby Cole and Kathleen Swartz will find it necessary to do ye olde exercises in ye petite Kegerreis' gymnastic classes, in order to keep that figure so-called "girlish."
- that ye young sheik, Paul Walker, is going to Florida with the rest of the "suckers" (extremely modern term.)
- that ye olde famous "P. J." Thompson, will be the owner of ye "Chewum, Chewum & Chewum Co.", ye manufacturers of "P. J. Chewum Gum."
- that Messrs. Junior Huntington and "Pug-nose" Wyatt will race for ye good olde championship of baby-perambulator-pushers at the jail of the county.
- that ye Art Graffis will be ye main attraction of the Frisky Frisco Frivolities ring show as the only living carrot-topped skeleton.
- that ye happy young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Morten Baum, will reside in a cozy hat on the wharf-fronts of ye famous New York City. The young Mrs. Baum of the future is at present ye Miss M. E. Hoover.
- that ye Norma Rogers will be the owner of a fashionable spaghetti shoppe in ye olde Harrison Street, in which ye young women, Juanita Shafer and Janice Hagerty, will be the waitresses.
- that Elinor Smith will be ye snob of snobs in ye olde New York's "400."
- that ye notorious character, Paul McKenzie, will be the official judge of alle important infant contests.
- that ye siren Helen Kilgren will henpeck Jimmy Oliver in their piloted home along ye river Rio Grande.
- that Eldy Lundquist will never be a writer of type.
- that ye Ruby Repozew will be too petite to break some big strong man's heart. Do ye suppose it could be ye "Dusty" Rhodes?
- that ye young scamp Sammy Wright will some day graduate from ye college as the oldest graduate ever bounced out.
- that Rosemary Jessor and ye great music in Joe Lebrun will eventually settle down and wed.
- that ye young Miss E. Elizabeth Smith will eventually break down and tell alle of we innocent bystanders what ye "E" stands for—perhaps when ye Redskins and ye Blue and White join up. (Hint?)
- that ye Lorna Oetting will win ye grande booby prize in ye great olde "Missing America" contest of beauty.

Bootblack: "Shine your shoes?"
 Bank President: "No."
 Bootblack: "Shine your shoes so you can see your face in 'em?"
 B. P.: "NO!"
 Bootblack: "Coward."

Customer: "If I leave security equal to what I take, will you trust me until next week?"

Grocer: "Certainly."

Customer: "Then sell me two of those hams and keep one of them until I come again."

Jimmie came to school with dirty hands. The teacher was shocked.

"Jimmie, what would you say if I came to school with dirty hands?"

"I wouldn't say anything", replied Jimmie, "I'd be too polite."

Indigestion is the failure to adjust a square meal to a round stomach.

Professor at a medical school: "The muscles of the patient's leg have contracted until one leg is shorter than the other, therefore he limps. Alfred, what would you do in a case like that?"

Alfred: "I'd limp too."

Son (at dinner): "Papa, are caterpillars good to eat?"

Papa: "Don't mention such things at the table."

Son: "Well there was one on your lettuce, but it's gone now."

Mr. Jones: "If the President, Vice-President, and all the members of the cabinet should die, who would officiate?"

Hugh Curtis: "The undertaker."

Lunatic (to asylum attendant): "Is that clock right?"

Attendant: "Yes."

Lunatic: "Then what's it doing in here?"

Sergeant: "Are you married?"

Prisoner: "No."

Officer: "He's a liar, Sarg, when we searched him we found a recipe for curing croup, a sample of silk, and two unposted letters in a woman's handwriting."

Crumbaugh: "Give me a derby."

Clerk: "What size?"

Crumbaugh: "I don't care."

Clerk: "What color?"

Crumbaugh: "I don't care."

Clerk: "Well, why——"

Crumbaugh: "Oh, it's for my trombone."

- X. Covet thy neighbor's work all you want to.

RECIPE FOR TRAGEDY

One reckless, natural born fool, two or three big drinks of bad liquor, and a fast, high powered car.

Soak fool well in the liquor, place in the car, and turn on the gas.

After due time remove fool from wreckage, place in black, satin lined box and garnish with flowers.

Pedestrian: "My good man, you'd better take a trolley home."

Stranger: "Sh—No use. My wife wouldn't let me keep it (Hic) in the house."

Whatever trouble Adam had,
No man in days of yore,
Could say when he had told a joke:
"I've heard that one before."

The old gentleman was a trifle bewildered at the elaborate wedding.

"Are you the groom?" he asked a melancholy looking man.

"No, sir," replied the young man, "I was eliminated in the preliminaries."

If it were not for this little verse
There'd be a joke here ten times worse.

Irate Man: "I bought a suit here last week and it's rusty looking already."

Dealer: "Vell, I said it would wear like iron didn't I?"

Mr. Horn: "What is a synonym?"

Lucille Marsh: "It's a word you use when you can't spell the other one."

In the parlor there were three,
She, the parlor lamp, and he.
Three's a crowd, there is no doubt,
So the little lamp went out.

He who knows not and knows not that he knows not is a freshman.

Sunday School Teacher: "You all want to go to Heaven don't you?"

Voice from back of Class: "I don't."

S. S. Teacher: "You don't want to go to Heaven? Why not?"

Voice: "We're moving to Detroit next week."

Chet: "Say, O'Dell, lend me a dollar?"

George: "I should say not."

Chet: "Oh, it doesn't have to be a dollar,
I'll take anything."

George: "Oke! Take a walk."

Willie: "Teacher, what's the sea like?"

Teacher: "It's like you. It's never quiet."

He who knows not and knows that he knows not is a sophomore.

Rastus: "Did you say you could lick me?"

Jasper: "Umhum! I sho' did. Want to see me demonstrate?"

Rastus: "I guess not. I jus' gathering statistics."

Teacher: "Samuel, have you whispered today without permission?"

Sammy: "Yes ma'am, wundst?"

Teacher: "Johnny, should Sammy have said 'wundst?'"

Johnny: "No ma'am, he should have said twicet!"

Old Gentleman: "How did you break off your front tooth, my little man?"

Seven-Year Old: "Shifting gears on a lollypop."

Mr. Cheney (to Girls' Glee Club): "Let's sing 'Old Black Joe' again, and girls, hold Joe longer this time."

After Jessie had been away at boarding school a few weeks she began signing her letters "Jessica." One day she received a letter from home.

Dear Jessica:

Daddica and Momica have gone to visit Aunt Lizzica. Uncle Samica is buying a new machinica, but he doesn't know whether to get a Fordica or a Chevica. The old cowica had a calfica and I was going to name it Nellica but I changed it to Jimmica because it was a bullica.

Your brother,

TOMICA.

Soph: "I don't think I deserve a zero."

Teacher: "Neither do I, but that's the lowest grade I'm allowed to give."

This telegram was received by the wife of an engineer who took only winter flannels to the tropics with him:

"S. O. S. B. V. D. C. O. D. P. D. Q."

"Where are you going?"

"No place, I'm just coming back from where I was."

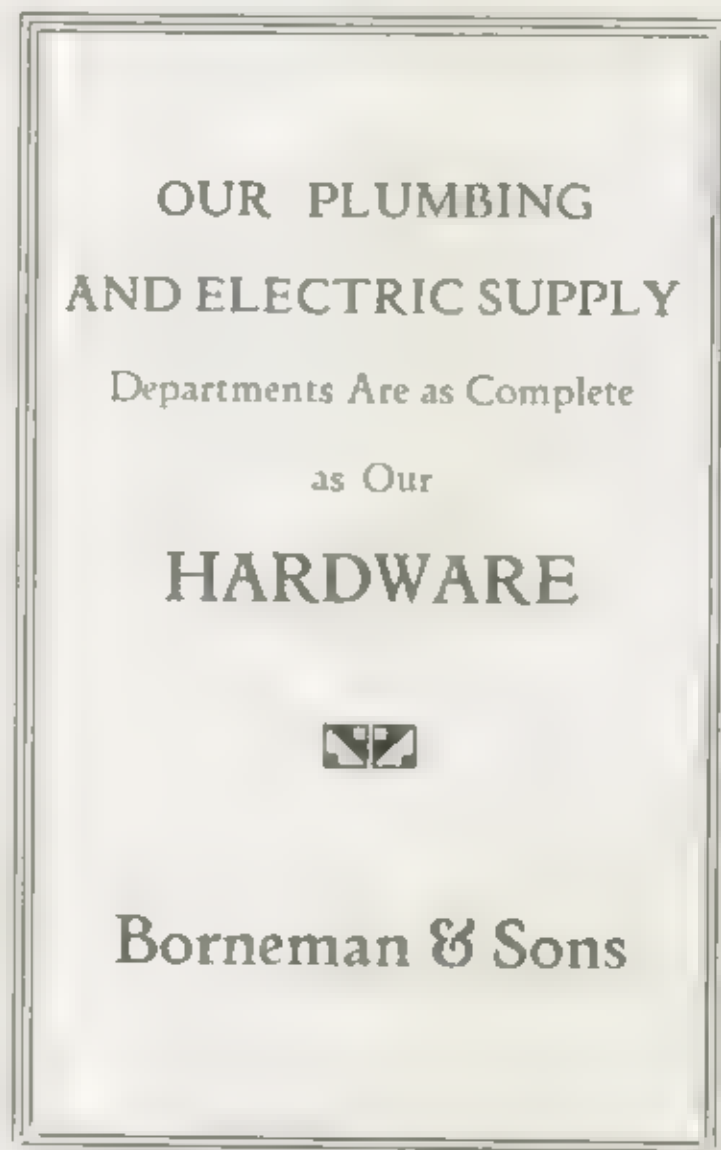

Little boy interrupted at his prayers by his teasing small sister:

"Excuse me a minute, Lord, while I kick Susie."

He who knows and knows not that he knows is a Junior

Miss Potter: You can't sleep in this class."

Benny Snyder: "I found that out. I've been trying to for the last half hour, but there's too much noise."

Robert: "Why is it that the night falls, but it's the morning that breaks?"

City Boy: "I suppose you hatch all these chicks yourself."

Country Hick (?): "Nope, we've got hens here that do that."

Martha Winterhoff: "There's no such thing as luck."

Joe Sellers: "It that so? Did you ever see anyone upset an ink bottle when it was empty?"

Judge: "You're fined $1.10 for beating up your wife."

Prisoner: "I don't mind paying the dollar, but Judge what's the dime for?"

Judge: "Amusement tax."

He: "Do two rights make a wrong?"

She: "Yes, when they're shoes."

Soph (to Freshman who stepped on his foot): "Well, kid, do you think my feet were made for an idiot to stand on?"

Freshie (sizing him up): "Yes, sir, they fit you nicely."

He who knows and knows he knows is a Senior.

Love is the best beauty doctor, but don't expect a miracle.

People who throw kisses are inexcusably lazy.

I used to think—

Seniors were privileged characters.

Tests were jokes.

Freshies weren't green.

Sophomores weren't conceited.

Juniors weren't uppish.

Passing notes was permissible.

Being called to the office was funny.

But now that I'm a Senior I'm older and wiser.

"Good Bye" to

COLDS HEADACHES SOUR STOMACH

Here's the New Way—

Just drop an ALKA-SELTZER Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up as it dissolves—then drink it. Do this, and you will discover the best and most effective way to say "Good-bye" to COLDS, HEADACHES and SOUR STOMACH. If your trouble is severe, take two ALKA-SELTZER Tablets the first time. They are harmless. They make a pleasing, effervescent drink. Take a drink of ALKA SELTZER as often as needed, and in a mighty short time you will have your Cold, Headache or Digestive troubles "on the run."

It's no secret why ALKA-SELTZER gives such prompt, effective relief for everyday ailments. Everyone knows that EXCESS ACIDITY is the real cause of common aches and pains. Some people call it "acidosis." When colds and sore throat attack—when you suffer with headaches, neuralgia, and rheumatism—when you are tormented with sour stomach, acid indigestion, heartburn, gas on the stomach—it's a pretty sure sign you are suffering from TOO MUCH ACID in your system.

Get rid of that excess acid condition and quickly your troubles vanish. That's exactly what ALKA-SELTZER does for you

When you drop an ALKA-SELTZER Tablet into a glass of water, it makes a perfect anti-acid drink—a bubbling glass full of the vital alkaline salts your body needs to correct excess acid. But that's not all. It gives double relief. FIRST—it stops the pain and discomfort. And SECOND—it neutralizes the excess acid and removes the cause of your trouble. Only ALKA-SELTZER gives you this double relief. Don't fail to try it. Keep a package in your home. Use it frequently to prevent everyday aches and pains, as well as relieve them

Lawyer: "For the last time I am asking you for that $3.00."

Debtor: "Thank Heaven, that's over."

"How's business?" we asked a scissors grinder.

Doctor: "Your husband must have absolute quiet. Here is a sleeping draught."

Wife: "When shall I give it to him?"

Doctor: "You don't give it to him—you take it yourself."

"I was singing this little two-stanza song when someone threw this shoe through the window."

"Fellows," exclaimed the major of a gallant regiment, "we are going into a desperate battle. Fight until your ammunition is exhausted and then run. As I'm a bit lame, I'll start now."

"So you have forgotten our wedding anniversary," she said bitterly.

"How could I remember it?" he inquired. "Time has slipped away so fast but so happily that the wedding seems but yesterday."

Troop Kind lady, I've seen better days.

Kind Lady: "Well, my good man, I can't help that. I'm not responsible for the weather."

"This fellow tried to tell me that he has had the same automobile for five years and has never paid a cent for repairs on it", said the Fat Man. "Do you believe that?"

"I do," replied the Thin Man sadly. "I'm the man who did his repairs for him."

"Tell me," said the lady to the old soldier, "were you cool in battle?"

"Cool?" said the truthful veteran, "why I fairly shivered."

Toiling,—rejoicing,—sorrowing,
Onward through life we go;
Each morning sees some task begin,
Each evening sees its close;
Something attempted, something done,
Has earned a night's repose.

Thanks, thanks to thee, my worthy friends,
For the lessons thou hast taught!
Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortunes must be wrought;
Thus on its sounding anvil shaped
Each burning deed and thought!

Younghub: "I've saved $15.00 by giving up smoking. What would you like for me to give up next?"

His Wife: "The $15.00, dear."

"Do you think it's unlucky to wed on Friday?"

Sure. Why should Friday be an exception?"

Ruth: "Do you know father has never spoken a hasty word to mother?"

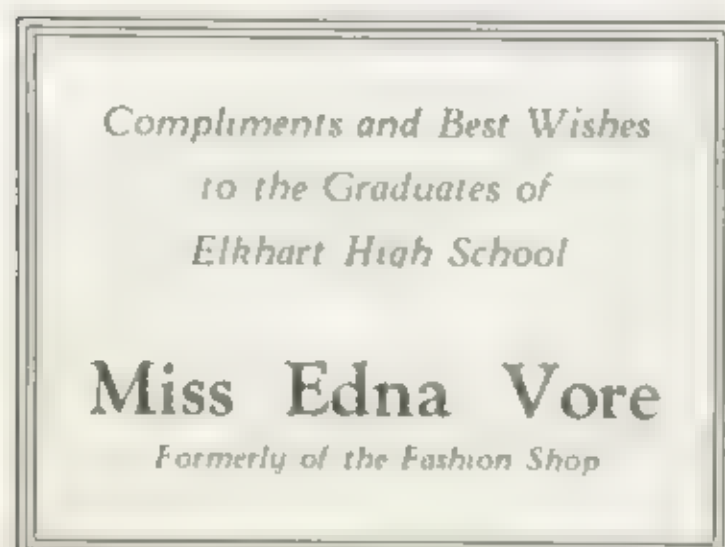

Tom: "How is that?"

Ruth: "He stutters."

"How yo' all getting along with yo' rithmetic, Sam?"

"Well, I don' learned to add the aughts all right, but de figgers bother me a lot."

"Did you or did you not," demanded a lawyer of a witness, "on the date in question, or any other date, say to the defendant, or to anyone else, that the statement imputed to you and denied by the plaintiff was a matter of no moment, or otherwise—answer me, yes or no?"

"I want a bottle of iodine."

"Sorry, but this is a drug store. Can't I interest you in an alarm clock, some nice leather goods, a few radio parts, or a toasted cheese sandwich?"

"Is your husband fond of golf?"

"Fond of it?" He told me the other day that I could consider myself lucky that he married me before he was introduced to the game."

"So you met Alice today?"

"Yes; I hadn't seen her for ten years."

"Has she kept her girlish figure?"

"Kept it? She's doubled it."

"I haven't done a day's work for two years."

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself."

"Oh, no. I'm a night watchman."

An attorney who advertised for a chauffeur, when questioning the applicant, said:

"How about you, George, are you married?"

"Naw, sir, boss; Ah makes mah own living."

Father: "I want to apprentice my boy to you."

Master Plumber: "Where is 'e?"

Father: "Well-er-he forgot his references and has gone back home for them."

Master Plumber: "Righto! I'll take 'im!"

"So you want to marry my daughter, eh?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you know much about business?"

"Not much, sir."

"Do you know the difference between an asset and a liability?"

"No, sir."

"Well, you will after you marry my daughter."

Music Teacher: "Why don't you stop? Those marks mean rest."

Johnny: "What's the use of restin'—let's get through with it."

Mrs. Crawford: "We're getting up a club to study auto-suggestion. You must join."

Mrs. Crabshaw: "Auto-suggestion? If it's a new scheme to get your husband to buy a car, you can count me in."

"Why is it that a red-headed woman always marries a very meek man?"

"She doesn't. He just gets that way."

Police Chief: "Well, did you work the third degree on that guy, as I told you?"

Detective: "Sure we did; we bully-raged and criss-crossed and tormented and badgered him every way we could think of."

"And—what did he have to say?"

"He just sort of dozed off and muttered, 'S' all right, Maria; s' all right—have it your own way'."

The small boy had been asked by the teacher to write a composition on the inhabitants of Hawaii and their customs and manners. After chewing on his pencil for an hour he turned in the following: "They ain't got no manners, and they don't wear no customs!"

Little Girl: "What do you think, auntie! There's something running across the bathroom floor without legs!"

Auntie: "Good gracious, child, what is it?"

Little Girl: "Water, auntie."

Willie: "Hello! Why are you standin' here in front of the office you got fired from last week? Waitin' to get taken back?"

Jimmie: "Not much! I just wanted to see if they was still in business."

Teacher: "Who can tell me why we should always be neat and clean?"

Cathleen: "In case of accident, teacher."

Mother (to son who wishes to go with big sister to a dance): "No dear, you cannot go this time. Wait until you're a big boy. Every dog has his day."

Son (forlornly): "But mamma, I'd rather have mine while I'm a pup."

A small girl asked her mother, "If I grow up, will I have a husband like papa?"

"Yes, my dear," mother replied.

"And if I do not get married, will I be an old maid like Aunt Susan?"

"Yes," was the reply.

The little girl thought for a minute, put her hands to her head, and said, "Well, I am in a fix."

Barber: "Sonny, how do you want your haircut?"

Sonny: "With a hole in the top like daddy's."

Teacher: "Now, boys, can any of you tell me something about Good Friday?"

Tommy: "Yes, ma'am. He was the feller that done the housework for Robinson Crusoe."

Harry: "Tell me a story, Uncle."

Uncle: "What about?"

Harry: "About a little boy who had an uncle that gave him a ball and bat."

Teacher: "Can you tell me, Johnny, what a hypocrite is?"

Johnny: "Yes, ma'am. It's a boy who comes to school with a smile on his face."

Teacher: "Can anyone tell me how macaroni is made?"

Johnny: "First you take a big, long hole, and then you wrap some dough around it."

Boss: "Well, did you read the letter I sent you?"

Office Boy: "Yes, sir; I read it inside and outside. On the inside it said, 'You are fired,' and on the outside it said, 'Return in five days,' so here I am."

Teacher: "Who was that laughing out loud?"

Joseph: "I was, ma'am. I was laughing up my sleeve and didn't know there was a hole in it."

Father: "Remember a man learns most who begins at the bottom."

Boy: "How about a guy learning to swim?"

Mother: "Now, Jimmy, suppose you were to hand Willie a plate with a large and small piece of cake on it, wouldn't you tell him to take the larger piece?"

Jimmy: "It wouldn't be necessary!"

Plumber: "I've come to fix that old tub in the kitchen."

Youngster: "Mamma, here's the doctor to see the cook."

FINIS

It has been a great year. But in spite of bank holidays, decreases in advertising, and difficulties in subscription drives, the last of the copy is ready for the press.

Before we turn the key and put an end to the Pennant Annual of 1933, we wish to thank everybody who has helped the book along, and there are a lot of them: the printer, the engraver, the photographers, the business staff, the editorial staff, the art staff, and a great number of students and teachers who, without any official connection with the year-book, have generously contributed their efforts.

If this book records those events and friends that have made so deep a place in your hearts, we are more than repaid for our many hours of work.

THIS is the word that year by year
While in her place the school is set
Every one of her students hears.

And none that hears it dares forget.
This we all with a joyful mind,

Carry through life like a torch in flame
And leaving, give to those behind--

"Play up, play up, and play the game!"
